NARRATIVE:

On the above date and time, Burlington Police Officers responded to a residence on South Willard Street for the report of a male subject who was discovered within the residence.

On Arrival, Officers discovered that forced entry had been made into the occupied dwelling by means of a front glass door, which was shattered.

Police made entry into the residence, locating the suspect just inside the front door, sitting in a chair. This male suspect was identified as Neil Thisse of Burlington.

The caller/homeowner had locked herself in a bedroom to call the police after being awakened to the sound of breaking glass. The victim was not injured during this incident.

This appears to be an isolated incident, and there is no fear of any other suspects at large.
